

Contents

The Seven Steps for a Quick and Successful Job Search.....	1
Step 1: Identify Your Key Skills and Challenges and Develop a “Skills Language” to Describe Yourself	1
The Three Types of Skills	2
Self-Management Skills	2
Transferable Skills	5
Job-Related Skills.....	8
What Challenges Does Your Disability Present?	9
Step 2: Define Your Ideal Job	9
Is It Possible to Find Your Ideal Job?	12
How Can You Explore Specific Job Titles and Industries?	12
Is Self-Employment or Starting a Business an Option?.....	20
Can You Identify Your Job-Related Skills Now That You’ve Defined Your Ideal Job?.....	21
What Job-Related Challenges Does Your Disability Present?.....	22
What Accommodations Will You Need?	22
Step 3: Use the Most Effective Methods to Find a Job in Less Time	24
Get the Most Out of Less Effective Job Search Methods.....	25
Newspaper and Internet Help Wanted Ads.....	25
Filling Out Applications.....	26
Employment Agencies.....	27
School and Other Employment Services	28
Mailing Versus Posting Resumes on the Internet	28
Specific Resources for People with Disabilities	29
Use the Two Job Search Methods That Work Best.....	29
Most Effective Job Search Method #1: Develop a Network of Contacts in Five Easy Stages	30
Most Effective Job Search Method #2: Contact Employers Directly ..	31
Create a Powerful Job Search Tool—the JIST Card®	32
A JIST Card Is a Mini Resume.....	32
A JIST Card Can Lead to an Effective Phone Script	34

Use the Internet in Your Job Search	34
Use More Than One Job Search Method	35
Check Out Career-Specific Sites First	36
Step 4: Write a Simple Resume Now and a Better One Later	37
Writing Chronological Resumes	38
Basic Chronological Resume Example.....	39
Improved Chronological Resume Example	40
Writing Skills and Combination Resumes	43
More Resume Examples	43
The Chronological Resume to Emphasize Results	44
The Skills Resume for Those with Limited Work Experience or with Significant Gaps Due to Injury or Illness.....	45
The Combination Resume for Those Changing Careers	46
The Electronic Resume	47
Step 5: Redefine What Counts as an Interview, and Then Get Two a Day	48
Make Your Search a Full-Time Job	48
Decide How Much Time You Will Spend Looking for Work Each Week and Day	49
Create a Specific Daily Job Search Schedule	50
Step 6: Dramatically Improve Your Interviewing Skills	51
Your First Impression May Be the Only One You Make	52
Follow the Three-Step Process for Answering Interview Questions	54
How to Earn a Thousand Dollars a Minute	55
Step 7: Follow Up on All Job Leads	57
Thank-You Notes Make a Difference	57
Use Job Lead Cards to Follow Up	58
In Closing	58
Appendix A: Essential Job Search Data Worksheet	63
Appendix B: Additional Resources	69
Resume and Cover Letter Books	69
Job Search and Interviewing Books	69
Books with Information on Jobs	70
Internet Resources	71
Other Resources	71

Appendix C: Use a Career Portfolio to Support Your Resume.....73
What Is a Career Portfolio?73
Create a Digital Portfolio73

